Instant coffee didn't kill coffee shops. Canned spaghetti didn't kill Italian cafes. Yet the media keep reporting that eCommerce and eReaders will kill the indie bookshop. We need to keep correcting the message.

There's value in experiencing something real, something authentic.

Writing and drawing on the walls. We love the stairwell at Vero Beach Books in Vero Beach, Florida where visiting authors and illustrators have literally left their mark.

Do you have a blank wall somewhere that could be your wall of fame?

Often times spaces near restrooms and drinking fountains, short walls that lead to the back room, and other little spaces can be used for something fun.

Here's the cafe at Books & Books in

Coral Gables, beautifully adorned with author photos ... a reminder to customers how bookstores add to the cultural life in the community.
